Hello,

I'm Juhai Khan

Data Scienctist

At ExcelR Solutions, our team leverages my skills in MongoDB and Express.js to enhance data-driven projects. My Master's degree in Computer Applications forms the academic bedrock for the technical expertise I bring to the table. With certifications in web development and data science, I contribute to responsive web design and the advancement of AI applications. My dedication lies in marrying rigorous academic learning with practical training to deliver cutting-edge solutions.
